SAMUEL AYERS.
FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.

WATCH MAKER.
Successor to E. F. Mack, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired without damage being done them. Surveyors' compasses repaired and other instruments requiring delicate and accurate adjustment.

In retiring from business in Frankfort I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Messrs. S. Ayers, and from my long acquaintance with him as a workman, do not hesitate to commend him as every one was capable of meeting the expectation of my former patrons.

Rev. John Barbour, of Louisville, will preach at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and evening.

Messrs. Davidson & Williams have had a telephone put into their branch house in this city. The number will be 63.

The examining trial of Mr. Frank G.
Montgomery for the shooting of Mr. Chas.
E. Taylor, has been postponed until Tuesday.

Mr. Chas. H. Egbert died Thursday night at the residence of his father, near this city, of consumption and rheumatism of the heart, in the sixtieth year of his age. He was a member of the Nationals Guards and was buried with military honors yesterday afternoon by the Nationals and McClellan Guards, a detachment of the Light Artillery acting as pall bearers.

The propertyholders on Shelly street South Side, whose fences are out on the street have been ordered by the City Council to move them in. This is a good move, and now if the Council will back up the order with a law suit, if the parties fail to comply, it will be still better, for propertyholders on other streets which are not used one tenth so much have been compelled to give up valuable ground, and there should be no distinctions made. Treat all alike.

The S. V. Pence Burned.

Wednesday evening about dark the steam saw-mill boat S. V. Pence, owned by Capt.
S. V. Pence, arrived at the dock below the city, having in tow two flat boats, one laden with wood and the other a "shanty boat" used as a boarding house for hands employed in cutting wood down on the river.
The wood boat was leaking and Capt. Pence concluded to tie up and not attempt to pass through the lock until morning, so all three boats were made fast to the bank, some of the hands came up to the city and the others retired for the night. About 11 o'clock Oreston Powell, the colored watchman, discovered the store-room of the Pence to be on fire, and although he awakened the other hands, and they made an effort to subdue the flames, the boat was burned to the water's edge and sank. Nothing of consequence was saved off the steamer but both the flat boats were saved. The boat cost Capt.
Pence $8,400, and he had but $3,500 insurance. He will build a similar boat in the spring.

Suffocated by Gas

A man under the influence of liquor went to the Meriwether Hotel Wednesday night, registered as B. C. Atkins, and asked for a room, stating that he had no money but would leave his overcoat in the possession of the clerk until morning, when he would get the money. He said he was from Woodford county, and retired about nine o'clock. Thursday morning one of the employes went to call him to breakfast when it was found the door of the room was fastened and the inmate could not be awakened. Mr. At. Meriwether was informed, and procuring the pass key, he went into the room and found Atkins lying on his face on the floor dead. The gas was turned on full and it is supposed that he blew it out upon retiring and was smothered to death.

He had nothing in his pockets but an empty whisky bottle and a handkerchief, was a man of middle age, slightly bald.

Coroner McKean held an inquest Thursday morning, when the jury returned a verdict of death from suffocation.

Thursday night the friends of the dead man arrived in this city, took charge of the remains, and conveyed them to Mortonsville, Woodford county, where the deceased was a prosperous blacksmith. When he left home it was with the intention of going to Louisville, and his friends are at a loss to know what became of his money, as he had a considerable sum with him when he started.

$100 Reward
Is offered for any case of Catarrh that can't be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally. Price 75 cents.

Call and see Waggener's holiday goods.

There will be a wedding in South Frankfort on Christmas day.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis will preach at the Chapel in Taylorton to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

If Catarrh has destroyed your sense of smell and hearing, Hall's Catarrh Cure will cure you. 75 cents per bottle. Druggist sell it.

Masonic Notice.

There will be a meeting of Frankfort Council, No. 3, R. and S. M., at Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening, December 19, 1882 at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of reorganization.
By order of
C. H. HATCHETT, T. I. G. M.

Mr. W. T. Reading, as is his usual custom, has brought on and is now opening a large stock of Christmas goods, such as toilet sets, vases, majolica-ware, china-ware, &c., and he invites his friends to call and examine his goods before purchasing, as his prices will compare favorably with any other house in the city.

We regret to learn that Mr. Thomas Crittenden, formerly of this city, but now of Anchorage, killed a negro man at that place Wednesday afternoon. It seems that the trouble grew out of the negro's having been a witness against Crittenden in a trial before a magistrate's court at Middletown, that morning. After the trial was over Crittenden returned home, got his double-barreled shotgun, hunted up the negro, fired two charges of duck shot into his body, killing him instantly.

Messrs. Frank Kelly and Morgan Lane, who had been drinking, started to leave this city in a buggy by the Millville pike, and when back of the Cemetery Kelly fired off his pistol, which frightened the horse and caused him to run away. The buggy was overturned near the railroad crossing at the Walcutt Cut, the two men were thrown out and the buggy smashed to pieces. Lane had one of his legs broken in two places and Kelly's head was badly cut. They were brought back to this city by Mr. John Trumbo, where they received medical attention.

A CARD.

Editor Roundabout:
In answer to a call made upon us a few days since, through the columns of the Roundabout and Yeoman, to become candidates for School Trustees, we will say, that while we are not candidates for the positions, if the people desire our services for another term, and elect us, we will endeavor to discharge the duties to the best of our abilities.
Respectfully,
F. WHITESIDES
D. L. HALY,

A CALL.

Editor Roundabout:
The names of Edward Hensley and Dr.
U. V. Williams will be voted for as School Trustees at the ensuing election. South Frankfort has no representative in the present Board. While there are no special complaints against the present Board, it is best for the interests of the school that one or more new Trustees should go in at the bi-annual elections.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 16, 1882.

Is an Election in January Legal?

Section 30 of the act approved March 16, 1869, entitled "An act to amend and reduce into one the several acts in relation to the City of Frankfort," reads:

Three School Trustees shall be elected by the qualified voters of the City of Frankfort, annually, at the same time, and place and in the same manner that Councilmen are elected.

The act of March 15, 1871, amending the above act, so as to prolong the terms of City Councilmen to two years instead of one, failed to provide for the election and terms of School Trustees, and on the 20th of December, 1871, an act amending the act of March 15, was passed by the Legislature, Section 3 of which said act as follows:

School Trustees for the City of Frankfort shall hold their offices for the same term, and be elected at the same time, that Councilmen for said City are elected.

The act passed by the last Legislature amending the City Charter failed to fix the time for the election of School Trustees. The election for Councilmen has been held, and no election of School Trustees was held "at the same time and place, and in the same manner," and the question arises, will an election on the first Saturday in January be legal; if not, do not the present incumbents hold over?

When the present office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals was changed from a court room, the raised floor was taken out of the north side and a fire place put in. Instead of taking up the floor and building up with masonry and filling in with sand for the hearth to rest upon, a thin cast iron hearth was placed on top of the boards and screwed down. On Saturday the heat of the ashes falling upon the hearth caused the flooring underneath to take fire, and it came near proving a serious matter. The flames were extinguished, however, without much damage, and the defect remedied.

Mr. Alex. McEwan was standing in front of Weitzel's confectionery Wednesday when a piece of slate weighing a pound, on the Mansard roof of the Old Fellows' Temple became detached and fell, striking Weitzel's sign, whence it glanced off, struck Mr. M. on the side of the head, slid down his right arm and raised a knot on the back of his hand. Had it not been for the sign, some magistrate would in all probability, have had to hold an inquest on the Coroner.

Elder George Darsie will deliver a lecture in the Pleasant Hill Christian Church, near Peak's Mill, next Thursday night, on "The Man of Sin." Those who have heard this lecture speak in high terms of its merits. There will, no doubt, be a large crowd present. The lecture is intended to liquidate a small debt that hangs over the Church, and while no admission fee will be charged, everybody who comes will be asked to contribute to the payment of the debt.

One day last week a wild hog belonging to the Feeble-minded Institute got into the premises of Mr. Pat. Downey and played havoc among his stock. It killed two yearling calves, tore the hide from a fine cow, and ripped up the legs and body of a valuable horse, so that it will die. Its tusks are said to have been immense. It was disposed of immediately and has doubtless been made into sausage by this time.

Sam. Girden, colored, who was arrested for breaking into Mr. L. Tobin's grocery two weeks ago, had his examining trial Tuesday morning and was held to answer at the Circuit Court in $200. Officer Stephens found two of the hams, which were stolen, in the possession of parties who said they bought them from Girden. Samuel's chances to work for the State for a year or two for his board and clothes are very flattering.

Andrew Kirkpatrick, who shot Harry Jackson last week, had his trial before Judge Sneed and Esquire Bohannon Wednesday afternoon, and was acquitted of the charge of shooting with intent to kill, but was fined twenty-five dollars for carrying concealed weapon and five dollars for being drunk and disorderly.

The proprietors of Kendall's Spavin Cure challenge the whole world to produce its equal as a cure for rheumatism or any other deep seated pain. It stands without a rival.

Mr. J. M. Parker wishes to sell a half interest in a grist and saw-mill which is doing a good business. Send his advertisement.

Mr. Will. Vaughn, formerly of this county, grandson of the late Walker Vaughn, and Miss Angie Grinstead of Louisville, were married at the First Christian Church in that city Wednesday night. Elder B. B. Tyler performed the ceremony.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN CITY AND COUNTY

There will be a wedding on north St. Clair street Thursday.

Many voters is now trying his hand on a ticket for School Trustees.

A large lot of silk handkerchiefs just received at W. T. Banyan's.

All kinds of nice books for children and grown folks at Marshall & Meagher's.

Another wedding Wednesday between a South Side girl and North Side lady.

A new telephone has been placed in the Commonwealth office, Station No. 68.

An extra large stock of prayer books and hymnals at Marshall & Meagher's.

Oranges, bananas, and apples in large quantities for sale at J. M. Todd's.

The prospect of having the new Post-office building on the Valley Mills lot has caused rents on South St. Clair street to go up about 100 per cent.

It is proposed to give the convicts in the Penitentiary a Christmas dinner. Mrs. Gov. Blackburn will receive contributions to the same either in money or edibles.

The green house of Hon. S. L. M. Major, in the rear of his residence, on Ann street, took fire early Saturday morning from the furnace, and was destroyed, together with most of the valuable plants it contained.

Mr. Robt. W. Tilford, formerly of this city but now of Greenville, Mississippi, and Miss Claudia Walton, of that city, will be married next week. Both many friends in this city send congratulations and wish him all the joy imaginable.

One of the finest stocks of jewelry and silverware ever brought to this city is now in the show cases at Mr. Phil. Selbert's, on St. Clair street. If you are looking for a nice present for your sweetheart you can not fail to find it there.

The firm of C. Skatenski & Bro. will be dissolved on or about the 1st day of January, 1893, and those whose indebtedness to them is past due are requested to come forward and settle, and those who desire bargains in cigars are invited to call and examine their stock.

The gas went out entirely in the Baptist Church Sunday night, and no service could be held. At the Presbyterian Church it went out after services began, but lamps were procured and the sermon finished. At the Methodist Church the burners gave but little more light than a candle, while at the Christian Church it was all right, and burned brightly.

Mr. John H. Brasham, a young man well known in this city, was returning to his home in Louisville Saturday night when he was met by a prostitute, who mistook him for a former lover and threw a cup of cold ice in his face, from the effects of which it is feared he will lose the sight of one of his eyes. He had been married only about five weeks.

A young man, formerly a resident of this city, but now living in a city not a thousand miles from here, was walking along the street in that place not long since, and was met by a stammer, who asked him if he could direct him to a saloon, when our young friend replied: "This is a local option town, sir; besides, do you take me for a sign?" "Well I don't know," replied the stranger, "but you walk like you own the place, and I thought you could tell me where any place in it was."

Rheumatism is the most terrible disease that has ever afflicted humanity, and it is nearly yield to the powerful drugs that Kendall's Spavin Cure is composed of. Read advt.

Mr. P. D. Delbaunt, 412 Wang street, Louisville, Ky., says: "Brown's Iron Pills cured me of dyspepsia and general debility."

Dr. R. F. Devall has removed his office to the room on Main street he formerly occupied, adjoining his residence.

Mr. George W. Gayle has removed his watch and clock repairing shop to his residence in South Frankfort, where he has fitted up a building for the purpose. Persons on the North Side who have work for him can leave it with Mr. Will Macklin at the coal office of Mr. G. B. Macklin, and the order will be promptly attended to.

Call and see Waggoner's holiday goods.

Judge W. H. Scott, in looking over his insurance expiration book Saturday, discovered that a two thousand dollar policy issued to Mr. George Bahr on his hotel, which he thought had been canceled before the fire that destroyed the greater portion of that building was still in force, and so informed Mr. Bahr, who was greatly surprised as well as pleased.
